THE GARDEN CLASS

Report of the Executive Committee

South End Industrial School

To the Members of the Corporation:—

Looking back over the past year we feel that we have done not only a larger but a better and broader work than in any previous year. The industrial classes have been increased, more social work done and greater co-operation reached with the Neighborhood and other charities.

The School was established for Industrial Training, and the classes in kindergarten, sewing, dressmaking, millinery, housekeeping, cooking, laundry, carpentry, cobbling, cane-seating, basketry, mechanical and free-hand drawing have been crowded to their limits. The waiting lists were so hopelessly long that generous friends have opened second classes in mechanical drawing and cane-seating, third in free-hand drawing and fourth in carpentry and laundry work.

Thirty names are on the waiting list for Sewing School, and we have refused to take more. If there are any who doubt the need of our school, or its usefulness, let them visit it some Saturday and see the happy children at work, in rooms flooded with sunshine. They will also find fresh applicants there, begging for admission to some class, many brought by parents who imagine that their eloquence can persuade us to take the children. Every evening has its crowded classes, and although we do so much for the young people, the mothers are not neglected. They have classes in laundry and millinery, besides their Thursday Afternoon Club, where two dressmakers are employed to cut for them. They enjoy the use of the three sewing machines, and their spring exhibition shows marvellous results of their winter's work. They could hardly wait for the club to open in the fall, and many are anxious to have their friends enjoy its privileges.

A Girls' Club was opened last winter; the members have current events each week and do leather and basket work, with an occasional social evening. The older boys and the little boys have their clubs as in previous years. The Choral Class is doing fine work, and with our orchestra of twelve violins has been invited to furnish music at various entertainments. Realizing the need of recreation and entertainment for our young people and being desirous to keep them from the cheap shows in the neighborhood, we opened a Dancing Class, the entire expense being borne by the boys and girls. At the request of the parents one will soon be opened on Tuesday afternoons for the little girls; this will be self-supporting.

In addition to the winter's work, there are summer classes in cooking, housekeeping and basket weaving. In the adjoining lot twenty-four of our children have gardens and are instructed by a trained teacher. We have been the means of introducing Home Garden work into Roxbury. This last year both the school gardens and the home gardens were awarded prizes by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society.

The work in the house has not only increased year by year, but the School has come into touch with many other charities, co-operating constantly with the Associated Charities of the District, our Superintendent being a member of their board and attending their conferences. She is also on the executive committee of the Boston Social Union, which includes all houses doing non-sectarian work, preventing duplication and bringing the School into touch with all that is being done in social and industrial work.

Our Superintendent is Secretary of the Parents Association of the Dillaway and Dudley Schools. This brings her into constant communication with the teachers of the district as well as the parents.

Through this Association she has started Stamp-Saving in the Dudley School. We are indebted again to the Country Week and Christmas Tree of the Young Men's Christian Union and the Boston Elevated Road for the pleasure and help that they have given to our children.

All this increase of work has meant increase of expense. Our funds were so low, that in October we sent out a circular asking our friends for contributions for running expenses and also for the invested fund.

Three thousand dollars have been generously added to the C. G. B. Fund, and we have received a gift of two hundred dollars from Mr. Fred H. Nazro in memory of his sister, Miss Mary W. Nazro, who served so faithfully for over twenty years in the sewing school.

On our present basis we need for general yearly expenses thirty-three hundred dollars. The income from the invested fund should now yield about sixteen hundred, leaving a balance of seventeen hundred to be raised each year from annual subscriptions and donations. If we are to do the enlarged work for which the district calls so loudly we must have still more.

We felt that our scholars would like to bear some part of the expense and therefore inaugurated a system of class fees whereby each pupil, with the exception of those in the youngest classes, pays five cents each month. It has been received with great favor, and all have been glad to do their part. This will mean over seventy-five dollars a year.

The Committee has met with a great loss in the resignation of Mrs. William H. Sands, who has been on the board for many years and has been devoted to all the interests of the School.

We are also sorry to lose our Clerk, Mrs. Arthur C. Wise, who has served us so well for two years.

We wish to thank the friends who have so generously helped and encouraged us with their gifts and also the volunteer workers, many of whom have given their time so faithfully for years. To those constantly in touch with the School the work never seemed so interesting and necessary as it does today, and we hope that our outside friends feel the same.

For the Committee,

LOUISE HOWE.
